MacArthur is Misquoted.

(By Associated Press.)

SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Dec. 10.—Major-General MacArthur, who is quoted in a cablegram dispatch from Honolulus predicting a way between the United States and Germany, has not returned to this city. At army headquarters it was stated to-day that he was not expected back from Honolulu until about Christmas, though he may come on the Sperman, due in a few days. Referring to the statement attributed to General MacArthur, which it appears was transmitted to Geovernor Carter by Colonial Jones, of the Hawalian militia, and high milliary officer said to-day:

"I cannot believe that General MacArthur made the prediction attributed to him. It is quite possible that in conferring with the fortifications board, which recently mat in Honolulu, he may have incidentally referred to the possibility of war with some foreign power as an argument in favor of properly defending the Hawalian Islands, which, statesfeelly. By way of Illustration, he may have mentioned Germany as a growing sea and commercial power, but he is too experienced an officer and diplomat to make the rash statement with which he is credited."

Other army officers expressed similar views, and all are confident that General MacArthur will make a prompt and entirely satisfactory explanation.

COLOMBIAN FORCE FAILS TO APPEAR

TWO VICTIMS OF THE DEADLY GAS

Mr. John L. Breckenridge Dead in His Bed at Seaboard Cafe. Mr. Parker Unconscious.

The remains of Mr. John L. Breckenridge, who was found dead in his room in the Seaboard Cafe, No. 1416 cast Main Street, Wednesday afternoon, were sent to Raleigh, N. C., yesterday morning for interment.

It is a notable fact that two well known men in the same day, were found in their rooms, the one unconscious and the other dead, from breathing filuminating gas, Mr. Breckenridge had been dead some nours when a servant entered his room at the Scaboard Cafe Wednesday afternoon. Dr. W. H. Taylor, the city coroner, examined the body, learned the circumstances of the death as well as possible, and came to the inevitable conclusion that death was accidental. Mr. Heeke, the proprietor of the cafe, told Dr. Taylor that the last time Mr. Breckenridge was known to be seen was Monday afternoon, when he paid his men for the week. He must have gone to his room that evening to emerge no more until the body had been put in the burial casket.

Recently Mr. Breckenridge has been connected with a hardware store of this city. He had spent much of his life in North Carolina, however, and his children are living there now; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Bradley, of Raleigh, and Mr. Milton Breckenridge, connected with a hank in Wilmington. examined the body, learned the circur

House Committee Reports Bill With an Amend-

The House Committee on Finance yes-terday afternoon reported the social club terday afternoon reported the social club bill, practically as it passed the Senate, except that an amendment was adopted at the suggestion of Hon. S. L. Kelley, of this city, requiring all social clubs de-ing business in wet districts to give bonds for $2,500 each in trust companies for the faithful observance of the laws. The bill will be reported to the House, and given its first reading to-day, and and givon its first reading to-day, and will likely pass early next week. Another amendment was offered, but was rejected, the effect of whose passage would have been to break up all manner of Sunday selling by clubs everywhere. Messrs, Rico, Jennings and Bowman voted for the amendment, and it would likely have been adopted, except for the fear on the part of some that it would have diminished the prospects of the passage of the bill. PRESENT STATUS.

The present status of the bill as amended by the House committee is to fix the maximum tax on social clubs at $50 to require those in wet districts to give bond for $2,500 for the faithful observance of the law: To repeal all charters granted the law: To repeal all charters granted the faithful observance of the law: To repeal all charters granted the faithful observance of the law: To repeal all charters granted for $2,500 for the faithful observance of the law: To repeal all charters granted since April 15th, 1903 in Mann bill, d.spensary or local option districts, and to require all those hereafter chartered to say whether or not they desire to handle liquor, and if so to obtain certificates from circuit judges to the offect that it is in keeping with sound public policy time they should be allowed to do so.

The effect of the law will be to practically eliminate what are known as "fake" clubs and to protect the bona fide ones, such as the Westmoreland and Commonwealth, which are organized for no ulterfor purpose, and whose sole object is to promote good fellowship and social intercourse among its members. The bill will likely pass the House, as the body seems moved with a desire to rid the State of what is characterized as the promiscuous sale of liquor in districts where it is the clear intention of the law that it should not be sold.

A most delightful evening was spent and the party was a gay and lively one. With characteristic hospitality, Mr. and Mrs. Allen threw open their new house to their friends, and during 3 and 5 in the afternoon, many called to present their compliments. At night the attendance was very large. The entire City Council was received, and all the other city omcials were invited. The occasion was a most pleasant one in all re-

THINGS VERY QUIET.

The unusual state of quietude that prevalls in the city is a cause for comment. The robberies in Richmond aroused some apprehension among the police, but up to this time all is peaceful on this side. The approach of Christmas is evident in all parts of the business section of the city, but the holiday spirit is brooding no disorder. Chief Lipscomb remarked upon this fact last night, and said he was much grateful at the excellent record the city is keeping.

(Special to the Times-Dispatch.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., December 10.—
The Independent Tobacco Manufacturers'
Association of the United States convened here to-oay, and three sessions were held. The body is meeting at the New Williard. About thirty of the eighty firms in the association have delegates here.

The two sessions held during the day were behind closed doors. It is learned that they were not very harmonious. It appears that the independents are not so nearly united tills year as they were last in favor of legislation prohibiting the giving away of cuppons or other things of value with tebacco manufactured in any form. It is understood that many of the wealthler of the independent manufacturers have adopted the practice of giving coupo is with their goods, and it is going to be a hard matter to induce them to favor a law prohibiting the practice.

THEY LIKE COUPONS.

It is said that Bloch Brothers, manufacturers of Mail Pouch smoking tobacco. Louisville, have found coupons so helpful as a trade-gener that they are bitterly opposed to giving them up.

Ropresentative Tawney, of Minnesota, will appear tefore the convention tomorrow in behalf of the bill which was introduced by Mr. Otjen, of that State, last year, prohibiting the use of coupons. It is most likely that it will be introduced degain this year, but it looks now as though it would not have the unanimous support of the Association of Independent Delegat.

There was a session of the convention held to-night, at which independent cligar dealers of New York were heard in behalf of the file of the independent pelsers.

A Countless Array of Handsome Things Now in the Big Store.

In its wonderful supply of everything that carries comfort and delight to man-kind, young and old, O. H. Berry's great store at Eleventh and Main is, at this particular period, a sort of Merca for mothers wives and sweethearts in search of the Christmas present that will warm the masculine heart.

A hasty trip through the building yesterday and a few moments spent in observation were a source of wonder and delight to the writer. There is no and the supply, and the man who is turned loose in the place is a satisfied animal. He can stand in one spot and with agiance around see everything he will need in a lifetime. Small wonder, then, that the womenfolk now studying the problem of suitable Christmas presents for the men should come to this headquarters, where the are sure to get what they want.
